

REPUBLICANS PREPARE FOR ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Local Workers Organize Club---County Chairman Confident.

MAY OPEN QUARTERS

Committee of Members Appointed to Look After Matter.

With a ringing old-time protection speech, such as carried conviction to the hearts of working people and citizens generally a decade ago, before this period of unrest and skepticism set in, was the Charleroi Republican Club instituted in the Bank of Charleroi Hall Monday night. Major James S. Stocking of Washington was the chief speaker. Seventy-three years old, a Civil War veteran who sacrificed an arm in the defense of the Union, the fire and vigor of the Major's address caused a thrill at times in the audience, particularly among the older men who lived through the periods that Major Stocking so graphically portrayed.

"Just a mere flicker of light in the socket," said Major Stocking, when congratulated over his speech at its conclusion "I could not keep quiet in this campaign, after passing through what I have. I want to contribute to the cause of Republicanism that may be my last mite."

It was a representative gathering, something over 100 of the leading citizens of the town and community were present and fully 200 more had signed a petition asking for the meeting to organize a Republican club. D. M. McCloskey, Esq., called the meeting to order and stated the object. A motion was unanimously passed that a Republican club be organized and this was done by electing J. J. Hott president, J. W. Mathias secretary, and D. M. McCloskey, Esq., treasurer. Chas. O. Frye was elected chief marshal and a committee composed of R. H. Rush, K. W. Daly and Chas. O. Frye was appointed to arrange for opening headquarters and to secure a room.

Major Stocking in his address reviewed the progress of the country under Republican rule, which he attributed chiefly to the protective policy. He cited the revolt in South Carolina against the tariff in Jackson's administration and said these nullifiers constituted the nucleus of the secessionists who later when they formulated the Confederate constitution at Montgomery, Alabama, declared for free trade.

"The Democratic party is the ready legatee of that free trade revolution," declared Major Stocking. "I do not charge the Democrats with maliciously trying to ruin the country, but I do charge them with misunderstanding its needs and what is essential to its well being."

He defended President Taft and told of conditions which existed in free trade countries in which he has traveled extensively. He said there was more necessity than ever for a high protective tariff, on account of the cheap textile and metal manufacturing that is now being done in the far east, India, China and other countries in the Orient. These people begin to countless generations of ours and quickly make skilled

Milk Price Now 10 Cents

Consumers Pay Two Cents More a Quart Today for Lactaei Fluid

The fall price of milk, 10 cents per quart was declared effective today by dairymen supplying Charleroi consumers with the lactaei fluid. The rate will last through the winter and until next May, when it is likely that the milkmen will reduce the price to eight cents. Ten cents is the regular winter rate and is in force annually. During May, June, July, August and September the eight cent rate is in force.

MRS. WM. DARBY DIES SUDDENLY

Well Known Charleroi Woman Collapses While Preparing Supper

EXPIRES SHORTLY AFTER

Following a collapse at 4:30 o'clock Monday evening, Mrs. Sarah Jane Darby, aged 56 years the wife of Health Officer Wm. Darby died suddenly at 2 o'clock this morning. She never regained consciousness after her collapse. Heart trouble was assigned by the attending physician as the cause of her death.

Mrs. Darby, was engaged in her duties of preparing the evening meal when she swooned to the floor. Members of the family hastily gathered her up and called a physician. Efforts to resuscitate her were in vain and she passed away very quietly. At her bedside when she died were her husband, her son, William and one daughter Miss Helen.

Surviving besides the stricken husband are the one son, William, of Charleroi and five daughters. The daughters are: Mrs. John Reilly of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Robert Wood of Fairhance; and Misses Lois and Helen at home. Miss Lois Darby was visiting in Cadiz at the time of her mother's death. Together with her other sisters, she is hastening home.

Arrangements are being made to hold funeral services at the First Christian church Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the Monongahela cemetery.

Mrs. Darby was a well known woman here. She was a native of Fayette county, being the daughter of the late Jacob Hostettler of McClellandtown. After marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Darby lived at various points in Fayette and Washington counties, coming here about seven years ago. They have resided here since. Mrs. Darby became a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of McClellandtown when she was a girl, and continued her membership in that denomination for 19 years, when she affiliated with the Clarksville Christian church. Later she transferred her membership to the Charleroi Christian church, of which she was a member at the time of her death.

PROTEST TO THE LAWRENCE AFFAIR

Industrial Workers of This Protest Trial of Ettor and Giovanitti

FOREIGNERS IN PPRADE

A protest meeting was held at Lynn's Grove, at Belle Vernon Monday under the auspices of the Industrial Workers of the World, protesting to the charges against Ettor and Giovanitti, the Lawrence strikers being placed on trial now for murder.

Preceding the meeting at Lynn's Grove, a parade was held through the streets of Belle Vernon by about 250 foreigners. One of the most pronounced demonstrations was the carrying of a red flag. This flag was carried by a foreigner. He was removed from the line of parade by a North Belle Vernon policeman. A woman participated in the parade and seemed to be in complete sympathy with the red flag movement.

At Lynn's Grove there was speech-making and a better organization of resources than was shown in the parade. D. P. Fulton of Uniontown, who is a Socialist candidate for some Fayette county office, spoke. VanBittner of Pittsburg, president of the United Mine Workers, made an address. Three bands furnished music for the parade, and during the afternoon at the grove. Mr. Bittner's address was along the lines of industrial organization and peace and rational political action.

WELL KNOWN REAL ESTATE BUSINESS IS TRANSFERRED

Today a portion of the business of Charles O. Frye, one of the best known real estate men in Charleroi was taken over by I. R. Blythe and Son, conducting the Blythe and Son agency. The rentals and fire insurance business passed into the hands of Mr. Blythe. Mr. Frye will retain for the present and until the first of November the real estate selling and life insurance. Negotiations were closed last week for the deal.

Mr. Frye has been engaged in the real estate business for several years, having quit a position with the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company to enter it. He has worked up a good trade in Charleroi and has become one of the foremost men of the community. Mr. Frye has devoted much of his time to civic work at which he is an expert and served three years on the borough council.

Mr. Blythe, purchaser of the business, is well known. He and his son conduct an up-to-date real estate and insurance office, having their office in the new Might building.

Mr. Frye has not announced his plans for the future yet, but will probably take up some new kind of work.

WILL TAKE TOUR UP MONONGAHELA

Members of the Pittsburg Coal Exchange, United States Engineers, and others will tomorrow make a tour of inspection from Pittsburg to Brownsville on the Monongahela river. The trip will be made in the yacht Troubadour. The inspection will be for the members of the party to gain a personal knowledge of locks, dams, bridges, landing cites and channel conditions.

START STONE WORK TODAY ON SCHOOL

Stone work was begun this morning at the site of the new Charleroi school building to be erected on Crest avenue. The Charleroi Lumber company, having the contract for both the excavating and stone work, has not finished entirely the excavating but will continue the stone work regardless as rapidly as possible. They expect to have both jobs finished in good season.

SHIPMENTS OF COAL HEAVY IN AUGUST

Report Shows 16,600,000 Bushels Were Locked Through Lock No. 4---Brings Nine Months Total up to 125,000,000 Bushels.

There were 16,600,000 bushels of coal locked through Lock No. 1 during the month of September, bringing the total shipments for the first nine months of the year up to 125,490,000 bushels. The September shipment is below the total for August, which was 17,601,000 bushels. July the total shipment was 11,091,000 bushels.

There was an exceptionally good rain fall during September, the total being 5.32 inches. There was a heavy trade during the month, and the lock men were kept busy. Down stream 690 lockages were made. Steamers going through the lock down stream numbered 377, and 1,580 boats, barges and flats were handled.

Up stream there were 675 lockages made. Steamers numbered 367, and there were 1,527 boats, barges and flats cared for.

ALLEGED THIEVES GIVEN TERM IN PENITENTIARY

John Willock and Martin Shubert, believed to be professional thieves, were given penitentiary sentences by Judge McIlwaine Monday on their pleading guilty to charges of felonious breaking and entry and receiving stolen goods.

W. J. Davis, a Pennsylvania railroad detective was the private prosecutor in two of the cases. In one the defendants were charged with entering the store of W. C. Potter at Charleroi. In the other the two were charged with entering the store of R. C. Mountsier, at Charleroi, and taking an engine belt, valued at $44.

The other charge was against Willock alone. The offense was committed over a year ago when some tools were taken from a planing mill at Monongahela, belonging to Stephen Bros. of that place. These tools were only recently found at the same place. The other stolen goods were found in a house at Shire Oaks.

On the first charge the two defendants were directed to pay the costs and undergo imprisonment in the penitentiary for a period not exceeding four years or less than two years; on the second charge the two were directed to pay the costs and were given a maximum sentence of four years and a minimum of one year.

On the charge against Willock alone he was given a maximum in the penitentiary of three years and a minimum of one year. These sentences are to run consecutively. Willock was sentenced at one time in this county under the name of Mike Moranjan, on a charge of stoning a freight train. He has been in prison at other times, and there is now a warrant out for him in Westmoreland county. Shubert denied being in with Willock in any other crimes save the two to which he pleaded guilty. He says he never knew him before. He admitted he had spent 30 days in the workhouse.

KILLED WHILE MAKING COUPLING

Evidently thrown under the wheels of that train while he was making a coupling, Frederick Booher, aged 24 years of Glenwood, Pittsburg, had his life instantly crushed out directly in front of the Baltimore & Ohio passenger station at Finleyville Monday. Booher was a brakeman on a freight of the B. & O. division. Considerable shifting was required there and it was while he was coupling a car that was to be removed that he was killed. Just a few seconds before he met his death he signalled the engineer to move the train forward.

It is supposed that when the train moved he was struck by a car and hurled under the train. Several cars passed over his body and when discovered he had been horribly mangled his head being severed from the body.

The body was gathered up and removed to the Shepler mortuary where it was prepared for burial. The remains will be taken to the home of a brother who resides in Glenwood. Booher was a widower.

PRIZES AWARDED

First Announcement of Winners in Limerick Contest Made.

NOW COMING IN FAST

Limerick writing is becoming all the rage in and about Charleroi as the result of the Mail's Limerick Contest. When three weeks ago the Mail started this unique feature with the co-operation of a number of the leading business men, it knew it had something interesting but hardly supposed that there would be such a deluge of Limericks as the Limerick editor has been required to examine during the past week. But the readers of the Mail cannot send too many. The Limerick editor will carefully examine every one, publish it if possible, and pay prizes for the best one.

Right here the Mail would like to impress upon its readers that as this is supposed to be a Limerick contest the Limerick form will be given the preference. A number of contributions submitted while in rhyming meter, were not in Limerick form, and some of them were too long for the advertising space at their command. While some of these have been published, as it was stated that they were submissible, so long as so many Limericks are coming in the others are not so available. Therefore the contestants are requested to use the Limerick form as much as possible.

On account of no prizes being awarded for the first week of the contest, four prizes of one dollar each are awarded to each the last week's contestants. They are as follows: Mrs. Athalia Daly-McKean, one dollar for Limerick published in advertisement of J. W. Berryman & Son.

James Ferguson, one dollar for Limerick published in advertisement of West Penn Electric company. Miss Edith Woodhall, one dollar for Limerick published in advertisement of Claybaugh & Milliken's Shoe Store.

Miss Ellen P. Clark, one dollar for Limerick published in advertisement of John Kuth's Bakery.

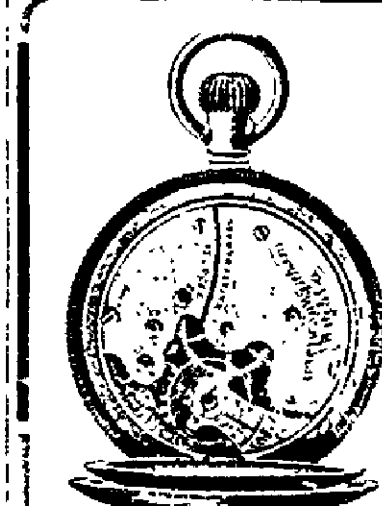

You will, by examining the Limericks referred to above, which were published in the Mail in the issue of September 24, be able to see the qualities which led the judges to award the prizes as stated. There is in each a certain gift of originality, which shows that the writers have followed plans of their own, instead of copying a thought or idea already published.

As the Mail has stated before, Limerick stand the best chance of winning prizes which contain the names of the advertisers, some article they sell, or some other happy allusion which makes the Limerick valuable as an advertisement.

Get in the game. It is delightful employment for the mind--writing Limericks. Remember, you can write as many as you wish. Tell your friends about the Limerick contest. It is the most interesting advertising and literary feature ever published in a newspaper, and will continue for ten weeks from the start.

WORKING THE SAME GAME.

Our Democratic opponents are pursuing the same course in the present campaign that was followed by them in the last campaign which resulted in the election of a Democratic President, with unfortunate results to the whole country. When the nation was in a prosperous condition—not so much so as now possibly, but prosperous—they successfully misrepresented the effect of Republican tariff legislation and won the election. Continuing this argument the Philadelphia Press says:

"Their attack in 1892 was upon the McKinley tariff act passed during the Harrison administration. No effort was spared to fasten upon that law every possible responsibility. The fact that mills and manufactories were in operation and labor employed was ignored, and imaginary evils were conjured up, and cures provided in Democratic tariff legislation; if the Democratic party were voted into power.

"Enough people were misled to elect a Democratic President; and Congress; and what happened? The country was plunged into a panic.
Business extensions and capital investment ceased. Mills were closed.
Labor was thrown out of employment.
Slop houses were established. The country entered upon a period of distress of the greatest severity, and it continued until the majority of the people had come to a sober realization of their grave mistakes and concluded to return the Republican party to power.

"The people were soon undeceived, but the mischief had been done in the elections of 1892. As promptly as they could get to the polls after that they reversed that result. The elections of 1894, midway of Cleveland's term, gave the Republicans overwhelming majorities all over the country, except in the South. The Congress was returned to Republican control. The destructive policy of the Democratic party had been sufficiently revealed and severely condemned. Confidence began to be restored and two years later William McKinley, the author of the much-maligned and misrepresented tariff act of the Harrison administration, was elected to the Presidency by majorities in most of the States unheard of until that time."

That experience deserves the sober consideration of the people as they approach the coming election. If well enough had been let alone at that time, if the people had not been misled by misrepresentation, the country would have been saved from a period of distress. The country is well off today. Why should agitators with imaginary cures for evils that do not exist and be permitted to lead it into disaster uncertainty and confusion?

COMMODITIES COUNT.

The more we learn about political and domestic economy, the more we realize that money is what it has been deemed from the start—a token.
In the bread and butter contest money really counts for nothing, except as a token with which to reckon the necessities of life. So much for rent, so much flour, so much for clothes, so much for the doctor, and finally so much for the undertaker. It is commodities that count in the struggle for existence, not dollars.

This is the mistake that the laborer makes in agitating for more pay. He thinks it is simply a matter of a few more cents an hour, or a dollar or two additional a day, or a few more cents a ton for coal mined or other piece work in proportion. It is not dollars and cents at all but commodities. A workman gets a raise, but immediately there is a raise in the commodities he buys, so that the raise does not avail him anything. He wages up instead of trying to keep wages up instead of trying to keep commodities down. Most working people would consider it an unheard-of proposition to try to have their wages doubled, yet the cost of commodities is constantly doubling up, and even bids fair to compound the process.

Money might be coined or printed indefinitely, as the old time Green-backers and Free Silverites advocated, but the production of commodities has a limit, and it is this limit that makes the cost of living high, not the lack of dollars. The commodity keeps about ten jumps ahead of the dollar, even nimble though the latter may be.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A Charleroi young man at one of the select dances at Eldora Park during the summer met a young lady from Pittsburgh, who was visiting some Monessen friends, and attended the dance with them. The two struck up a sort of a mutual admiration, and when they parted for the evening the young lady gave the Charleroi young man her Pittsburgh address and invited him to call. Business affairs kept him closely at home until last week, when he found time to visit Pittsburgh one evening, and he phoned the young lady that he would drop in about 9 o'clock.

Making his way to the East End on a street car, he located the street but for the life of him could not distinguish the house number in the darkness. The street was rather deserted and the one or two pedestrians he hailed were strangers like himself, and could give no information. Finally, as he stood, bewildered on the street curb a taxicab came along.
Hailing the driver the young man said:

"Can you take me to number so and so," indicating the street number.

"Sure," replied the taxi man. Jump right in."

"How much will it cost?" queried the young man.

"Two dollars."

"All right," said the Charleroi man, who was losing valuable time by the delay. "Hurry up, now."

"Excuse me," said the taxi man,
"but we always collect in advance."

The young fellow handed over the two bucks, and the taxi man, instead of proceeding ahead, backed his car and said:

"I'm a little late for my appointment, the house just in front," and he whirled away before the Charleroi man could give utterance to the expressive word that he partly suggested itself.

Walter Byerly of the Charleroi Lumber company, who was up at Clark Hill recently, relates that the landlord of the latter there, who is ordinarily an ardent Democrat, has been, as Major James S. Stocking says, the residuary legatee of the Jeffersonian principles, from his great grandfather's time, is somewhat pessimistic over the chances of Democratic success this fall. In a conversation with Mr. Byerly the landlord said:

"Well, I think that Taft will win out after all."

"You're not as hopeful as the most of your party," said Mr. Byerly.

"Nearly every Democrat I know has Wilson picked for a winner. What's the matter with him, that you give the fight at this state of the game?"

"Well, in my opinion Wilson's not the right candidate. He has too exalted an opinion of himself. According to his way of thinking he's the only man in this country who is made to order. All the rest of us are made by contract. A man like that can't win."

EVERY business man owes a duty to the town in which he does business. As it is the town which affords him the opportunity—gives him the privilege, in fact—it is his duty to help mark time in the progress of the town. In order to take care of the vested interests and maintain real estate values, which must continually be extended to equalize taxation, the town should attain a certain amount of progress each year.
More houses must be built; more people move in, and more industries installed. Naturally a live town attracts people and industries quicker than a dead one. A live town is one in which all the business people are hustling hard to extend their trade and give their business publicity.

Advertising is the only way to attract attention. The town in which its business people do not advertise soon becomes known for its high and unequal taxes and lack of progress. These are the towns that eventually have to be doctored. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

expresses the situation:

"A loin cloth," continued the Ma-

At the close of Major Stocking's address County Chairman Carothers made a few remarks regarding the political situation in the county. He said he felt sure that Washington would give its old-time Republican majority and stated that the disappointed element was led chiefly by those who had been honored by office at some time or other in the Republican party.

With Chairman Carothers were Secretary O. Evans Mikesell, scaler of weights and measures, Recorder J.
C. Sutherland, Isaac Baum, Esq., and Ralph Allison, Esq., candidate for Assembly, all of Washington. James Walker and William Feeney, the other

WE have been particularly fortunate this season in our preparations, notwithstanding these preparations were on a broader scale than ever before. The designers, showing an unbounded enthusiasm, have eclipsed all their previous efforts, and their custom tailors, infected with the same spirit, have invested their work with truly artistic taste, quite in keeping with the grace of the drafting and cutting.

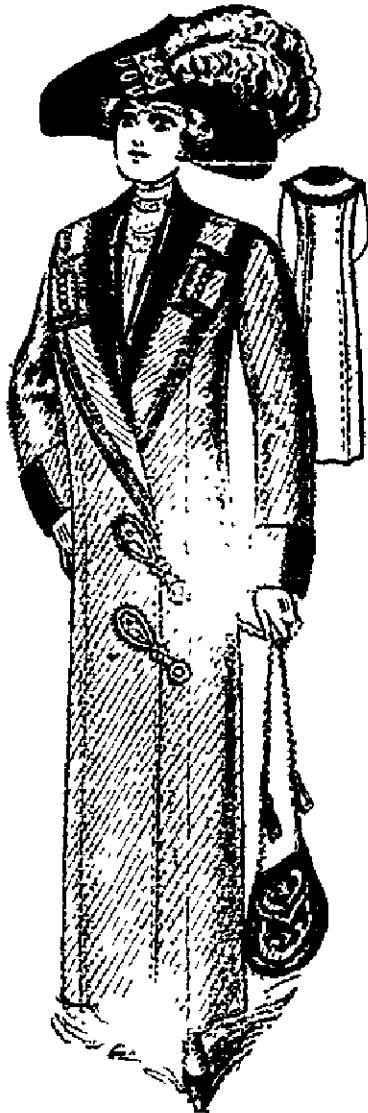

To describe this wonderful display of bewitching clothes would be well nigh an impossibility. You must come and get a full view of these handsome garments to appreciate the originality of the courtless designs.

Interesting Experience of Two Women—Their Statements Worth Reading.

Asheville, N.C.—"I suffered for years with female trouble which came through the Change of Life. I tried a host of physicians for a couple of years without any substantial benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I quit my physician and commenced using it with the happiest results. I am today practically a well woman and am able to contribute my mite towards inducing others to try your great medicine, as I am fully persuaded that it will cure the ailments from which I suffered if given a fair chance.

"If you think this letter will contribute anything towards further introducing your medicines to afflicted women who are passing through this trying period, it is with great pleasure I consent to its publication."—Mrs. JULIA A. MOORE, 17 East St., Asheville, N.C.

The Case of Mrs. Kirlin. Circleville, Ohio.—"I can truthfully say that I never had anything do me so much good during Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I had taken one half a bottle of it I began to feel better, and I have continued taking it. My health is better than it has been for several years. If all women would take it they would escape untold pain and misery at this time of life."—Mrs. ALICE KIRLIN, 353 W. Mill St., Circleville, Ohio.

The Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Such times women may rely upon Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you don't know much about California Homes and FARMS you owe it to yourself to learn NOW!

CATTLE CROSSING OVER IRRIGATING CANAL

HOME and social life in Northern California is the most pleasant because there are more bright days than in Southern Italy, and there is every convenience for bringing people together.

FARMS in the Sacramento Valley produce many more times net profit to the acre than Eastern farms because the soil is the best, sun shines every day, and there is plenty of good water for irrigating, with proper drainage.

ORANGES, potatoes, alfalfa and all fruits, grains, grasses and vegetables mature earlier in Northern California than in any part of the world.

STOCK and POULTRY are easier to raise and produce more because the climate is healthful and green feed grows in abundance.

MARKETS are very near, with cheap railroad and river transportation, making financial success sure.

If interested, we urge you to write us today and learn of people who are making big money there now.

Let us know what you wish most to be informed about and get an instructive reply.

Don't delay, every day now sees new settlers moving on this land, as it is ready for seed, and the best farms go first.

REPUBLICANS PREPARE FOR ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Local Workers Organize Club—County Chairman Confident.

Committee of Members Appointed to Local Affairs

Matter.

With a ringing old-time protection speech, such as carried conviction to the hearts of working people and officers generally a decade ago, before this period of unrest and skepticism set in, was the Charleroi Republican Club instituted in the Bank of Charleroi Hall Monday night. Major James S. Stocking of Washington was the chief speaker. Seventy-three years old, a Civil War veteran who sacrificed an arm in the defense of the Union, the fire and vigor of the Major's address caused a thrill at times in the audience, particularly among the older men who lived through the periods that Major Stocking so graphically portrayed.

It was a representative gathering, something over 100 of the leading citizens of the town and community were present and fully 200 more had signed a petition asking for the meeting to organize a Republican club. D. M. McCloskey, Esq., called the meeting to order and stated the object. A motion was unanimously passed that a Republican club be organized and this was done by electing J. J. Hott president, J. W. Mathias secretary, and D. M. McCloskey, Esq., treasurer. Chas. O. Frye was elected chief marshal and a committee composed of R. H. Rush, K. W. Daly and Chas. O. Frye was appointed to arrange for opening headquarters and to secure a room.

Major Stocking in his address reviewed the progress of the country under Republican rule, which he attributed chiefly to the protective policy. He cited the revolt in South Carolina against the tariff in Jackson's administration and said these nullifiers constituted the nucleus of the secessionists who later when they formulated the Confederate constitution at Montgomery, Alabama, declared for free trade.

"The Democratic party is the real enemy of that free trade convention," declared Major Stocking. "I do not charge the Democrats with maliciously trying to run the country, but I do charge them with misunderstanding its needs and what is essential to its well being."

He defended President Taft and told of conditions which existed in free trade countries in which he has traveled extensively. He said there was more necessity than ever for a high protective tariff, on account of the cheap textile and metal manufacturing that is now being done in the far east, India, China and other countries in the Orient. These people begin to outnumber generations of ours and quickly make skilled

EXPIRES SHORTLY AFTER

Following a collapse at 1:30 o'clock Monday evening, Mrs. Sarah Jane Darby, aged 56 years, the wife of Health Officer Wm. Darby died suddenly at 2 o'clock this morning. She never regained consciousness after her collapse. Heart trouble was assigned by the attending physician as the cause of her death.

Mrs. Darby was engaged in her duties of preparing the evening meal when she swooned to the floor. Members of the family hastily gathered her up and called a physician. Efforts to resuscitate her were in vain and she passed away very quietly. At her bedside when she died were her husband, her son, William and one daughter Miss Helen.

Surviving besides the stricken husband are the one son, William, of Charleroi and five daughters. The daughters are: Mrs. John Reilly of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Robert Wood of Cadiz, Ohio; Mrs. Charles Wilson of Fairchance; and Misses Lois and Helen at home. Miss Lois Darby was visiting in Cadiz at the time of her mother's death. Together with her other sisters, she is hastening home. Arrangements are being made to hold funeral services at the First Christian church Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the Monongahela cemetery.

Mrs. Darby was a well known woman here. She was a native of Fayette county, being the daughter of the late Jacob Hostettler of McClellandtown. After marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Darby lived at various points in Fayette and Washington counties, coming here about seven years ago. They have resided here since. Mrs. Darby became a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of McClellandtown when she was a girl, and continued her membership in that denomination for 19 years, when she affiliated with the Clarksville Christian church. Later she transferred her membership to the Charleroi Christian church, of which she was a member at the time of her death.

FOREIGNERS IN PARADE

A protest meeting was held at Lynn's Grove, at Belle Vernon Monday under the auspices of the Industrial Workers of the World, protesting to the charges against Ettor and being placed on trial now for murder. Preceding the meeting at Lynn's Grove, a parade was held through the streets of Belle Vernon by about 250 foreigners. One of the most pronounced demonstrations was the carrying of a red flag. This flag was carried by a foreigner. He was removed from the line of parade by a North Belle Vernon policeman. A woman participated in the parade and seemed to be in complete sympathy with the red flag movement.

At Lynn's Grove there was speech-making and a better organization of resources than was shown in the parade. D. P. Fulton of Uniontown, who is a Socialist candidate for some Fayette county office, spoke. VanBittner of Pittsburgh, president of the United Mine Workers, made an address. Three bands furnished music for the parade, and during the afternoon at the grove. Mr. Bittner's address was along the lines of industrial organization and peace and rational political action.

Today a portion of the business of Charles O. Frye, one of the best known real estate men in Charleroi was taken over by I. R. Blythe and Son, conducting the Blythe and Son agency. The rentals and fire insurance business passed into the hands of Mr. Blythe. Mr. Frye will retain for the present and until the first of November the real estate selling and life insurance. Negotiations were closed last week for the deal.

Mr. Frye has been engaged in the real estate business for several years, having quit a position with the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company to enter it. He has worked up a good trade in Charleroi and has become one of the foremost men of the community. Mr. Frye has devoted much of his time to civic work at which he is an expert and served three years on the borough council.

Mr. Blythe, purchaser of the business, is well known. He and his son conduct an up-to-date real estate and insurance office, having their office in the new Might building.

Mr. Frye has not announced his plans for the future yet, but will probably take up some new kind of work.

WILL TAKE TOUR UP MONONGAHELA

Members of the Pittsburgh Coal Exchange, United States Engineers, and others will tomorrow make a tour of inspection from Pittsburgh to Brownsville on the Monongahela river. The trip will be made in the yacht Troubadour. The inspection will be for the members of the party to gain a personal knowledge of locks, dams, bridges, landing cites and channel conditions.

START STONE WORK TODAY ON SCHOOL

Stone work was begun this morning at the site of the new Charleroi school building to be erected on Crest street. The Charleroi Engineering company, having the contract for both the excavating and stone work, has not finished entirely the excavating but will continue the stone work regardless as rapidly as possible. They expect to have both jobs finished in good season.

The September shipment is below the total for August, which was 17,601,000 bushels. July the total shipment was 14,991,000 bushels. There was an exceptionally good flat called for.

ALLEGED THIEVES GIVEN TERM IN PENITENTIARY

John Willock and Martin Snodgrass believed to be professional thieves, were given penitentiary sentences by Judge McIlwaine Monday on their pleading guilty to charges of felonious breaking and entry and receiving stolen goods.

W. J. Davis, a Pennsylvania railroad detective was the private prosecutor in two of the cases. In one the defendants were charged with entering the store of W. C. Potter at Charleroi. In the other the two were charged with entering the store of R. C. Mountsier, at Charleroi, and taking an engine belt, valued at $44.

The other charge was against Willock alone. The offense was committed over a year ago when some tools were taken from a planing mill at Monongahela, belonging to Stephen Bros., of that place. These tools were only recently found at the same place. The other stolen goods were found in a house at Shire Oaks.

On the first charge the two defendants were directed to pay the costs and undergo imprisonment in the penitentiary for a period not exceeding four years or less than two years; on the second charge the two were directed to pay the costs and were given a maximum sentence of four years and a minimum of one year.

On the charge against Willock alone he was given a maximum in the penitentiary of three years and a minimum of one year. These sentences are to run consecutively. Willock was sentenced at one time in this county under the name of Mike Moran, on a charge of stealing a freight train. He has been in prison at other times, and there is now a warrant out for him in Westmoreland county. Shubert denied being in with Willock in any other crimes save the two to which he pleaded guilty. He says he never knew him before. He admitted he had spent 30 days in the workhouse.

Evidently thrown under the wheels of that rain while he was making a coupling, Frederick Booher, aged 24 years of Glenwood, Pittsburg, had his life instantly crushed out directly in front of the Baltimore & Ohio passenger station at Finleyville Monday. Booher was a brakeman on a freight of the B. & O. division. Considerable shifting was required there and it was while he was coupling a car that was to be removed that he was killed. Just a few seconds before he met his death he signalled the engineer to move the train forward.

It is supposed that when the train moved he was struck by a car and hurled under the train. Several cars passed over his body and when discovered he had been horribly mangled his head being severed from the body.

The body was gathered up and removed to the Shepler mortuary where it was prepared for burial. The remains will be taken to the home of a brother who resides in Glenwood. Booher was a widower.

PRIZES AWARDED

First Announcement of Winners in Limerick Contest Made.

Limerick writing is becoming all the rage in and about Charleroi as Contest. When three weeks ago the Mail started this unique feature with the co-operation of a number of the leading business men it knew it had something interesting but hardly supposed that there would be such a deluge of Limericks as the Limerick editor is now receiving.

Right here the Mail would like to impress upon its readers that as this is supposed to be a Limerick contest the Limerick form will be given the preference. A number of contributions submitted while in rhyming meter, were not in Limerick form, and some of them were too long for the advertising space at their command. While some of these have been published, as it was stated that they were "submittable," so long as so many Limericks are coming in the others are not so available. Therefore the contestants are requested to use the Limerick form as much as possible.

On account of no prizes being awarded for the first week of the contest, four prizes of one dollar each are awarded to each of the last week's contestants. They are as follows:

Mrs. Athalia Daly McKean, one dollar for Limerick published in advertisement of J. W. Berryman & Son.

James Ferguson, one dollar for Limerick published in advertisement of West Penn Electric company.

Miss Edith Woodhall, one dollar for Limerick published in advertisement of Claybaugh & Milliken's Shoe Store.

Miss Ellen P. Clark, one dollar for Limerick published in advertisement of John Kuth's Bakery.

You will, by examining the Limericks referred to above, which were published in the Mail in the issue of September 24, be able to see the qualities which led the judges to award the prizes as stated. There is in each a certain gift of originality, which shows that the writers have followed plans of their own, instead of copying a thought or idea already published.

As the Mail has stated before, Limericks stand the best chance of winning prizes which contain the names of the advertisers, some article they sell, or some other happy allusion which makes the Limerick valuable as an advertisement.

Get in the game. It is delightful employment for the mind—writing Limericks. Remember, you can write as many as you wish. Tell your friends about the Limerick contest. It is the most interesting advertising and literary feature ever published in a newspaper, and will continue for ten weeks from the start.

WORKING THE SAME GAME.

Our Democratic opponents are pursuing the same course in the present
 campaign that was followed by them in the last campaign which resulted in the election of a Democratic President, with unfortunate results to the whole country. When the nation was in a prosperous condition—not so much so as now possibly, but prosperous—they successfully misrep-
 resented the effect of Republican tariff legislation and won the election. Confirming this argument the Philadelphia Press says:

"Their attack in 1892 was upon the McKinley tariff act passed during the Harrison administration. No effort was spared to fasten upon that law every possible responsibility. The fact that mills and manufacturing were in operation and labor employed
 was ignored, and imaginary evils were conjured up, and cures promised in Democratic tariff legislation. If the Democratic party were voted into
 power.

"Enough people were misled to
 elect a Democratic President and Congress; and what happened? The country was plunged into a panic.
 Business extensions and capital investment ceased. Mills were closed.
 Labor was thrown out of employment.
 Soup houses were established. The country entered upon a period of distress of the greatest severity, and it
 continued until the majority of the people had come to a sober realization of their grave mistakes and concluded to return the Republican party
 to power.

"The people were soon undeceived,
 but the mischief had been done in the elections of 1892. As promptly as they could get to the polls after
 that they reversed that result. The elections of 1894, midway of Cleve-
 lands term, gave the Republicans overwhelming majorities all over the country, except in the South. The Congress was returned to Republican control. The destructive policy of the Democratic party had been sufficiently revealed and severely
 condemned. Confidence began to be restored and two years later William McKinley, the author of the much-
 maligned and misrepresented tariff
 act of the Harrison administration,
 was elected to the Presidency by majorities in most of the States under a cloud of evil that time."

That experience deserves the sober
 consideration of the people as they approach the coming election. If well enough had been let alone at
 that time, if the people had not been misled by misrepresentation, the
 country would have been saved from
 a period of distress. The country is well off today. Why should agitators
 with imaginary cures for evils that
 do not exist and be permitted to lead
 it into disaster uncertainty and confusion?

COMMODITIES COUNT.

The more we learn about political
 and domestic economy, the more we

been deemed from the start—a token.
 In the bread and butter contest money really counts for nothing, except
 as a token with which to reckon the necessities of life. So much for rent,
 so much flour, so much for clothes, so much for the doctor, and finally so much for the undertaker. It is commodities that count in the struggle for existence, not dollars.

This is the mistake that the laborer makes in agitating for more pay. He thinks it is simply a matter of a few more cents an hour, or a dollar
 or two additional a day, or a few more cents a ton for coal mined or other piece work in proportion. It is not dollars and cents at all but commodities. A workman gets a raise,
 but immediately there is a raise in
 the commodities he buys, so that the raise does not avail him anything. He
 wages up instead of trying to keep wages up instead of trying to keep commodities down. Most working people would consider it an unheard-
 of proposition to try to have their wages doubled, yet the cost of commodities is constantly doubling up, and even bids fair to compound the process.

Money might be coined or printed
 indefinitely, as the old time Green-
 backers and Free Silverites advocated, but the production of commodities has a limit, and it is this limit
 that makes the cost of living high, not the lack of dollars. The commodity keeps about ten jumps ahead of the dollar, even riddle though the latter may be.

A Charleroi young man at one of the select dances at Eldora Park during the summer met a young lady from Pittsburg, who was visiting some Moresen friends, and attended the dance with them. The two struck up a sort of a mutual admiration, and when they parted for the evening the young lady gave the Charleroi young man her Pittsburg address and invited him to call. Business affairs kept him closely at home until last week, when he found time to visit Pittsburg one evening, and he phoned the young lady that he would drop in about 9 o'clock.

Making his way to the East End
 on a street car, he located the street
 but for the life of him could not distinguish the house number in the darkness. The street was rather deserted and the one or two pedestrians
 he hailed were strangers like himself, and could give no information. Finally, as he stood, bewildered on the street curb a taxicab came along Hailing the driver the young man
 said:

"Can you take me to number so
 and so, indicating the street number."
 right in."

"How much will it cost?" queried
 the young man.

"Two dollars."

"All right," said the Charleroi
 man, who was losing valuable time by the delay. "Hurry up, now."

"Excuse me," said the taxi man,
 "but we always collect in advance."
 The young fellow handed over the two dollars, and the taxi man, instead of proceeding ahead, backed his car directly to the street curb and the door and said:

"These you are—this is your number, the house just in front," and he whizzed away before the Charleoi man could give utterance to the expressive word that instantly suggested itself.

Walter Byerly of the Charleroi Lumber company who was up at Chaik Hill recently, relates that the landlord of the bostery there, who is ordinarily an ardent Democrat, having been, as Major James S. Stocking says, the residuary legatee of the Jeffersonian principles from an great grandfather's time, is somewhat pessimistic over the chances of Democratic success this fall. In a conversation with Mr. Byerly the
 landlord said:

"Well, I think that Taft will win
 out after all."

"You're not as hopeful as the most of your party," said Mr. Byerly.
 "Nearly every Democrat I know has Wilson picked for a winner. What's the matter with him, that you give up the fight at this stage of the game?"

"Well, in my opinion Wilson's not the right candidate. He has too alted an opinion of himself. According to his way of thinking he's the

 only man in this country who is made to order. All the rest of us are made by contract. A man like that can't win."

EVERY business
 man owes a duty to
 the town in which he does business. As it is the town which affords him the opportunity—gives him the privilege, in fact—it is his
 duty to help mark time
 in the progress of the town. In order to take care of the vested interests and maintain real
 estate values, which
 must continually be extended to equalize taxation, the town should
 attain a certain amount
 of progress each year.
 More houses must be
 built; more people move
 in, and more industries
 installed. Naturally a five town attracts people and industries quicker
 than a dead one. A live town is one in which all
 the business people are
 hustling hard to extend their trade and give
 their business publicity.

Advertising is the only way to attract attention. The town in which its business people do not advertise soon becomes known for its high and unequal taxes and lack of progress. These are the towns that eventually have to be
 doctored. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

workers, who toil for the munificent

 "As for clothes," said Major Stocking, "I'll recite a little doggerel which I heard while in India, which fully expresses the situation:
 The poor benighted Hindoo.
 He does the best he "kin" do He sticks to his cast From first to last
 And for pants he makes his skin do.
 "A loin cloth," continued the Major, "constitutes the principal clothing of the men, while the children go stark naked up to the age of 10 and 12 years."

At the close of Major Stocking's address County Chairman Carothers
 made a few remarks regarding the political situation in the county. He said he felt sure that Washington
 would give its old-time Republican majority and stated that the disar-rected element was led chiefly by those who had been honored by office
 at some time or other in the Republican party.

With Chairman Carothers were Secretary O. Evans Mikesell, sealer of weights and measures, Recorder J.
 C. Sutherland, Isaac Baum, Esq., and
 Ralph Allison, Esq. candidate for Assembly, all of Washington. James Walker and William Feeney, the other two candidates for Assembly were also present.

FIRE ALARM RUNG TEAMS HAVE LONG RUN TO FIRE HOUSE

The necessity of keeping at least one of the five teams working in the vicinity of the fire house was again amply demonstrated this morning when a fire alarm was rung in from Meadow avenue and Third street. As a matter of fact the alarm was a false one, but it necessitated the teams being brought to the fire house almost from the neighborhood from which the alarm was turned in. Both the borough teams were employed on Shady avenue near Third street, a little more than a block away from the alarm box. Chief Fleming secured the use of an automobile and hastened to the scene with two Babcock extinguishers which in the absence of a chemical wagon, was second best.

CHARLEROI TEAM TO OPEN SEASON

The probable lineup has not been announced. Alex Gray, coach of the team is expected home today to take charge of the work of drilling. It is claimed that the team this year is the best in the history of Charleroi, including several college players, and no inexperienced men.

If you don't know much about California Homes and FARMS you owe it to yourself to learn NOW!

CATTLE CROSSING OVER IRRIGATING CANAL

HOME and social life in Northern California is the most pleasant because there are more bright days than in Southern Italy, and there is every convenience for bringing people together.

FARMS in the Sacramento Valley produce many more times net profit to the acre than Eastern farms because the soil is the best, sun shines every day, and there is plenty of good water for irrigating, with proper drainage.

ORANGES, potatoes, alfalfa and all fruits, grains, grasses and vegetables mature earlier in Northern California than in any part of the world.

STOCK and POULTRY are easier to raise and produce more because the climate is healthful and green feed grows in abundance.

MARKETS are very near, with cheap railroad and river transportation, making financial success sure.

If interested we urge you to write us today and learn of people who are making big money there now.

Let us know what you wish most to be informed about and get an instructive reply.

Don't delay, every day now sees new settlers moving on this land, as it is ready for seed, and the best farms go first.
